SOCIAL WELFARE DEPARTMENT

The 29th August, 1972

No. 3825-SW-2-72/14447.—The Governor of Haryana is pleased to make the following rules namely "the Rules for the Homes for Widows and Destitute Women" and these rules will come into force from the date of their publication and shall be applicable throughout the jurisdiction of the State of Haryana.

The main purpose of this scheme is to provide shelter, food and clothing, education and training to the young widows and destitute women and their children to enable them to have a good living and become useful members of the society.

Aims and Objects.

2. The benefit of the scheme will be extended to unattached women, their dependents, and orphan girls in the State. The following categories of persons will be maintained in the institution :—

Definition.

- (i) Young widows including deserted wives whose husbands have severed all connections with them and who have no earning son, or any other male relative in a position to support them.

- (ii) Families of persons suffering from T.B. and mental disease, who are not medically fit to earn and who have neither any earning members nor any means of income.
- (iii) Orphans/unattached girls claimed by none may be admitted and maintained up to the age of 25 years or till marriage or on seeking gainful employment which ever is earlier.
- (iv) Dependents of persons in categories (i) and (ii) under both headings include wives, unmarried daughters and sons up to the age of 19 years, who are receiving education in Matric or Higher Secondary Courses and 22 years who take up the vocational/technical professional training courses; in case of girls they may be maintained up to the age of 25 years or till their marriage or up to the date they are employed, whichever is earlier.

Note.—Adopted children will not be treated as dependents.

- (v) Hard Cases.—The cases which are not covered by the above categories but are in the opinion of the Head of the Department deserving admission will be referred to the Government in the Administrative Department and in such cases the reasons will have to be recorded in writing by the Head of the Department.

Admission. 3. The policy envisages the admission in to the Home on the recommendations of the Deputy Commissioners concerned after thorough enquiries through the sources at his disposal. In order to provide quicker relief to the deserving applicants, the applications may be got processed by the Investigating Agency including Case Worker/Investigator available in the Headquarters office of the Social Welfare Directorate. The Superintendents of Homes/Infirmaries may also make enquiries and recommend deserving cases of local applicants. Each family shall be told at the time of admission, the duration which would be determined with regard to the age of children and other able-bodied members of the family.

Application. 4. Applications should be made in the prescribed form at Appendix "A" and these will be addressed to the Director, Social Welfare, Haryana.

Cash Dole. 5. The scale of each doles shall be as under :—

For family with 1 member	..	Rs 30 per mensem
For family with 2 members	..	Rs 50 per mensem
For family with 3 members	..	Rs 75 per mensem
For family with 4 members	..	Rs 100 per mensem

subject to the maximum limit of Rs 100/-

Besides Clothing and Toilet allowance at the rate of Rs. 4 per mensem per head subject to a maximum of Rs. 16 per mensem per family will be paid. Clothing and toilet shall be given in kind preferably out of the products manufactured in the Home.

Accommodation. 6. Normally a room measuring 12' x 10' should accommodate not more than 5 inmates. Proportionate increase in the number of persons should be made for larger rooms.

Education and Training. 7. Arrangements for the education to the children of the school-going age up to Matric/Higher Secondary standard by providing admission, tuition fee, books and stationery and uniforms etc, and other academic/technical training in various crafts such as tailoring, hand/machine embroidery, weaving etc, will be made available to the inmates. The able-bodied women will be provided opportunities to work in the training-cum-production centres attached to the Institution and supplement their income. They will also be sponsored for education/vocational/technical courses at Government expenses to enable them to rehabilitate permanently.

Dispersal and Rehabilitation Grants. 8. Young girls will be sanctioned a marriage grant of Rs 300 per mensem at the time of their marriage. The inmates who get proficiency in one craft or the other will also be sanctioned a rehabilitation grant of Rs 250.

Sanctioning authority. 9. The Director, Social Welfare, Haryana, will be the authority competent to sanction admission to the Home and his decision to sanction or rejection of the application shall be final subject to appeal to Government.

10. Cases of inmates under the scheme shall be reviewed once a year to review their eligibility for continuance in the Home. Such a review shall be conducted by a small committee comprising of Deputy/Assistant Director and the Superintendent of the Home. Such a review is particularly necessary in the following types of cases :—

Review.

(i) persons admitted as hard cases, This, in the case of deserted women, would include reconciliation with their husbands ; and

(ii) in other cases would include gainful employment of themselves or their dependent sons etc.

11. (i) The inmates would be liable to be refused further stay in the Home and their cash dole stopped if the terms/conditions on which they were admitted have ceased to exist.

Terms and Conditions.

(ii) The inmates would also be liable to expulsion in cases of acts of indiscipline, immorality, anti-social/anti-Govt. activities etc, under the orders of the Director, Social Welfare, Haryana.

(iii) The cash doles granted to the inmates and other expenditure incurred, would be liable to be recovered if it is found that the admission was obtained through false information furnished by the inmates, or on her behalf, deliberately, knowing it to be false.

(iv) The orders of the Director, Social Welfare, regarding suspension of cash doles, expulsion etc. would be final subject to appeal to the Government.

12. The inmates who receive proficiency in one craft or other or after completion of education/training will be eligible to the benefits under the Dispersal Rules framed by the Government, a copy of which is appended at Annexure 'B'.

Dispersal.

13. The per capita rate of expenditure may fixed at Rs 45 per mensem. The break-up of the per capita expenditure of Rs 45 is as under :—

DISPERSAL RULES

All inmates who have become ineligible for gratuitous maintenance or are otherwise willing to leave to home along with their dependents may be dispersed and paid 6 months dole in lump sum.

(1) Single old women above 50 years or women below 50 years who have been declared medically unfit to work may be dispersed on Rs 16 per mensem, outside, if they desired.

(2) Women above 50 years with children or women declared medically unfit may also be dispersed along with their children on Rs. 15 per mensem, Rs. 7.50 per mensem for each child subject to a maximum of Rs 45 per family, if they so desire.

(3) Single aged infirm persons with no grown up sons may be dispersed on Rs. 15 per mensem each outside, such persons who have their wives and children also in the Home may be dispersed on Rs. 15 for themselves and Rs. 7.50 for subsequent family members subject to a maximum of Rs 45 per mensem per family : they so desire. The intention of this rule is to avoid splitting up of the families as far as possible.

(4) Boys to be ordinarily maintained in the Home till the age of 19 years. Boys who fail once in Class IX, X and XI should be given one more chance provided their terminal examination reports are extraordinary good. In the case of boys who attain the age of 18 years in Class VIII or below they should be diverted to training or dispersed. At the time of dispersal a lump sum grant of Rs 250 to be paid to these boys who attain proficiency in some vocation during their stay in the Home.

(5) Unmarried girls may continue on dole up to the age of 21 during which period they are expected to pass their Matriculation/Higher Secondary examination and go for training. If any of them fail during the course of studies, they may be given one more chance after which they should be diverted to training their doles should be discontinued. In the case of orphan girls, however an exception should be made otherwise and they should continue till they are engaged in gainful occupation till they attain the age of 25 whichever is earlier. A rehabilitation grant of Rs 25 may be paid to them at the time of their dispersal, if they have received proficiency in some vocation.

(6) Such persons should be paid a lump sum Rehabilitation grant of Rs 250 to establish themselves in some trade outside.

(7) Inmates whose relatives have started earning and are in a position to support them and actually would support them should be dispersed from the Home on payment of three months compassionate doles.

(8) If an unattached woman whether doles or derationed marriage, a lump sum grant of Rs 300 should be paid to her.

(9) (a) A lump sum grant of Rs. 300 should be paid at the time of marriage of the girls provided the marriage takes place while she is on the strength of the Home (whether doles or derationed).

(b) All able-bodied women and unmarried girls may be put off doles on completion of training or securing gainful occupation. They may be given one more chance if they fail in the training course. The children of such able-bodied women, if any, may continue on doles till they complete their education/training. Such women/girls who have completed their training and would like to leave the home may be paid a lump sum grant of Rs. 250 at the time of leaving.

(10) Boy inmates getting salaried jobs should be given a lump sum outfit grant of Rs. 250 in the shape of equipment such as cycle etc. at the time of dispersal.

Women working in Training-cum-Production Centres in the Homes or some other capacity in the Home

Women working in Training-cum-Production Centres or living inside the Home should contribute half the excess over Rs. 40 per mensem for the maintenance of their children, if any, subject to a maximum of Rs. 25 per child per mensem towards the maintenance of their children in the Home. Single women who have no children in the Home and are themselves working in the production centres should contribute a lump sum of Rs. 10 per mensem if their income exceeds Rs. 40 per mensem subject to the condition that net income left with the women should not be less than Rs. 40 per mensem after paying the contribution, if any.

Women working in salaried jobs outside but living inside the Home

Women working in salaried jobs outside but living inside the Home should contribute half the excess over Rs. 40 per mensem subject to a maximum of Rs. 25 per child per mensem towards the maintenance of their children in the Home provided they have not earning sons living inside/outside the Home and also their salary does not exceed Rs. 125 per mensem. Those who have grown up sons or are earning over Rs. 125 per mensem should be dispersed on one year's doles to their dependents on the strength of the Home.

Women working in salaried jobs outside and residing outside

Women working outside and living outside whose children are left in the Home should contribute half the excess over Rs. 60 per mensem subject to a maximum of Rs. 25 per child per mensem towards the maintenance of their children left in the Home. If a woman takes away one child to stay with her, she should contribute half the excess over Rs. 85 per mensem. But if she has one or more adult son outside or if the income of the family exceeds Rs. 150 per mensem the family should be dispersed with one year's dole to the members in receipt of cash doles irrespective of the earning of the sons.

Unmarried sons/daughters holding salaried posts.

Unmarried sons/daughters holding salaried posts should contribute half the excess over Rs 60 per mensem towards the maintenance of their parents and other dependents left in the Home/Infirmary. In the case of a daughter, when she marries she should not be required to make any contribution in this behalf. But in the case of son, the limit of income should be raised from Rs 50 to Rs. 85 on his marriage and by an additional sum of Rs 25 for each child. But if the sons earnings are over Rs 125 per mensem and if he is unmarried the family should be dispersed with one year's doles. In the case of married sons, if the income is over Rs 150 the family should be dispersed with the same benefit as above.

In the case of those families whose unmarried daughters are holding salaried posts, and living with them in the Home, they will contribute half the excess over Rs 40 per mensem subject to a maximum of Rs. 25 per mensem per head provided they have no grown up earning brother out side.

[FAMILIES HAVING ONE OR MORE SONS WHOSE EARNINGS ARE NOT FIXED

As regards families having one or more sons whose earnings are not fixed or those who are employed in private jobs such as Hawkers, rickshaw pullers, labourers, their sons will contribute a lumpsum of Rs. 15 per month towards the maintenance of their parents left in the Home provided their own income exceeds Rs 60 per mensem. But if they are residing in the Home, which is not permissible they will be charged Rs. 25 per mensem during the days in the stay in the Home. The intention is to discourage all earning sons to live in the Home with their parents.
